

Lord, teach me your way. I, I wander in your truth, before my heart will be afraid of your name. Faithful Father in heaven I beg you in Jesus my Saviour's name to show me your truth and explain to me the road to eternal life. O dear Lord Jesus you who call yourself the light of the world, came you with your holy life's light and lighted up my dark heart, and erected light and life where you saw it was dark and cold. Faithful Father prove to me with the Holy Ghost through your creation and honesty and let my doubts fall from my eyes so that I can see myself in your words and light O dear Lord. Jesus give me a sincere, hearty acknowledgement that it really is so with me as your word describes me, that I myself am quite lost and guilty to the eternal death. O Lord Holy Ghost help me to know my heart's condition so that I never would have anything to praise myself of, but let my praise be locked out and give place for your word in my heart and humiliate me. Lord my God, I must make myself better from where I have fallen, but dear Jesus I can't make myself better, you faithful Saviour must lead me on the road of improvement, you free my heart of all sin and impurities and give me a heart that is willing to learn and know you O heavenly Father and you Lord Jesus as my Saviour- from sin and death and Satan's kingdom. You God Holy Ghost who is so merciful, come to me and teach me to view into the disengaged perfect law and be there with the Lord Jesus himself. O dear Lord Jesus break down all obstacles with me that will stay in the way for your words effect in my soul and let this your word which is written down in the Holy Bible which you have entrusted with me, be my life and salvation. Dear Jesus, hear my prayer and strengthen me in your veracity, O Jesus teach me to wander in your footsteps in true hope and complete trust to you my Lord and Saviour and help me with your big kindness to obtain eternal salvation. Dear Father hear my incoherent prayer in the name of Jesus. Amen.
